

After 150 years, it's back!

Foreword written by Kentucky's late Historian Laureate
Thomas D. Clark

This Premier Edition of Clark's Kentucky Almanac and Book of Facts 2006 revives the tradition begun in 1788 by John Bradford and ceased in 1856.

Now, this 784 page collection of fascinating facts, past and present, notable personalities, vital statistics and wealth of information is destined to become a collector's treasure.

Whether you are a trivia fanatic, history buff, or just plain curious about Kentucky's historical facts, business and economy, the arts, sports, recreation, family trends, Clark's Kentucky Almanac will hold you spellbound for hours.
